Southeastern Tree Climbing Workshop & Reunion

What
Southeastern Tree Climbing Workshop & Reunion is sponsored by the Wildlife Resources Division of the Georgia Department of Natural Resources (WRD-DNR), and co-sponsored by the Global Organization of Tree Climbers (GOTC).

Why
To improve climbing skills & wilderness ethics, meet outdoor professionals interested in recreational tree climbing, and climb with like minded people that care for Nature & trees worldwide.

Goals
- Promote tree climbing.
- Provide an affordable regional event for younger climbers and college researchers.
- Encourage climbers to find ways to work with local, state or national agencies in the area.
- Support climbers to host regional workshops in their part of the country.
- Create a gathering where climbers from everywhere can learn together.

“Time in nature is not leisure time; it’s an essential investment in our children’s health (and also, by the way, in our own).”
— Richard Louv, Last Child in the Woods.

Charlie Elliott Wildlife Center: Our primary climbing area will be in the huge hardwoods in the 300-acre educational forest next to the conference center. Furthermore this place has more than a dozen canoeing and fishing lakes, miles of hiking trails, world-class bird and wildlife opportunities, a lodge with plenty of hotel-style guest rooms, excellent dining and meeting facilities. Located: less than an hour’s drive from Atlanta International Airport.
